The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about May 6, 2008 and November 20, 2009, you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

2.40 (b) (2) – Repeated failure to maintain an adequate program of veterinary care.

3.9 (b) – Repeated failure to maintain food receptacles such that they can be readily cleaned and sanitized.

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
